A Fools Alphabet Sebastian Faulks

Sebastian Faulks's third and most magnificent novel is a 'feel-good' experience from cover to cover. Daily Mail Elevated by some delicate prose, particularly in evocation of childhood and adolescence, A Fool's Alphabet is a poignant and highly readable novel that runs the gamut of experience from well, from A to Z.

A Fool's Alphabet | Sebastian Faulks: Sebastian Faulks

That being said, A Fool's Alphabet was quite a difficult for me to read. The constant chronological and geographic shifting isn't the problem as some would have you believe, it's more the fact that ostensibly this novel seems to be more about Faulks exercising the aforementioned literary flair than probing away at a telling theme.
