God did spread a table in the wilderness, even for a stiff-necked and rebellious people. How much more, then, for those who believe in him and trust his saving power (Psalm 78:21f.). Trust in the Lord and do good; so you will dwell in the land, and enjoy security. Delight yourself in the Lord, and he will give you the desires of your heart.

Russ Taff - Table in the Wilderness

Tables in the Wilderness is an honest, authentic look at faith and how it can be a major part of our lives even when we can't "feel" or "hear" God. Yancey shares from his own life experiences and it's these gut-level, honest glimpses into his heart as he seeks a God that he fears has abandon him that call out to the reader and give hope.

RUSS TAFF - TABLE IN THE WILDERNESS LYRICS

And, by God's grace, a table is set in the wilderness--smack dab in the midst of our lives. It is what our eucharistic life is all about. Taking, blessing, breaking and giving ourselves out of compassion with the people on our heart. Let me read you a couple of verses from a hymn that we will be singing during communion today:

Sermon: A Table in the Wilderness

"Can God really spread a table in the wilderness?" they demanded to know. (Psalm 78:19) As it turned out, God could and still can. It may not be the table we had hoped for, but it will be enough. More than once, biblical writers describe the ancient Israelites as people who wandered in the wilderness.
