The Tempest 3rd Edition - cambridge.edu.au

The Fair Maid was moderately well known even before Heywood wrote a sequel for the Cockpit company who played it at Court in the early 1630s, when the two plays were first published.² It was probably originally written in 1609-10, because The Roaring Girl refers to it, and that play can be dated precisely in 1611. The dating, very close to the time The Tempest was written, raises the question ...
