Burning Elana K Arnold

Elana K. Arnold has done it again! For "Sacred" I thought it had too much religion. I felt that it was the main focus of the book. While I did enjoy the story, I feel that Arnold was able to captivate the Gypsy lifestyle but it didn't change the story. I was lucky enough to receive an ARC of "Burning" weeks before the release.

Burning Author: Elana K. Arnold Publisher: Delacorte Press Source/Format: eARC requested on NetGalley Publication date: June 11th 2013 (today!) My rating: 3.25 out of 5 stars Synopsis: Ben: Having just graduated from high school, Ben is set to leave Gypsum, Nevada. It's good timing since the gypsum mine that is the lifeblood of the area is closing, shutting the whole town down with it.

ARC Review: Burning by Elana K. Arnold - Mostly YA Lit

Elana K. Arnold's Burning has an interesting premise; plus, it deals with the Romani culture, which I find fascinating. However, it ultimately left me feeling flat. Ben and his friends seemed realistic to me including everything right down to their crude dialogue.
