Count to a Trillion ( CtT) is the first novel in the Count to the Eschaton Sequence by John C. Wright . Hundreds of years in the future, after the collapse of the Western world, young Menelaus Illation Montrose grows up in what was once Texas as a gunslinging duelist for hire. But Montrose is also a mathematical genius—and a romantic who dreams of a future in which humanity rises from the ashes to take its place among the stars.

There are 31,536,000 seconds in a 365 day year, and one trillion divided by 31,536,000 is approximately 31,710. So it looks like that's where the estimate of over 31,000 years to count to one trillion came from: it's based on an assumption that a person is counting one number each second. But let's think about this a little.
