Turkish cuisine (Turkish: Türk mutfağı) is largely the heritage of Ottoman cuisine, which can be described as a fusion and refinement of Central Asian, Middle Eastern, Mediterranean, Eastern European, Armenian and Balkan cuisines. Turkish cuisine has in turn influenced those and other neighbouring cuisines, including those of Southeast Europe (), Central Europe, and Western Europe.

La Turque. La Turque is, in some ways, halfway between the other two La Las, despite being grown on the youngest vines (averaging just 25 years of age). Darker and denser than La Mouline but not quite as tannic or powerful as La Landonne. La Turque's appeal lies in its elegant complexity and quality.

The menu features contemporary Turkish cuisine, light and fragrant, by Didem Senol, the author of a bestselling book on Aegean cuisine. The chef insists on Turkish products, seasonal and organic if possible, which she sources from all over the country. It will be difficult to make your choice before so many promises.
