"Gun Guys: A Road Trip" is the (nonfiction) tale of a liberal Democrat gun owner who takes to the road to try to understand and document gun owners in America. This is a must-read for anyone interested in the gun debate. Admittedly, no one with an opinion about gun rights or gun control will be swayed by the contents of this study.

Gun Guys: A Road Trip by Dan Baum - Goodreads

Baum's road trip into gun culture taught him about self-reliance, but he admits his core questions about firearms' easily politicized allure remain slippery.

Though many liberals will dislike Baum's conclusions (and gun rights crusaders may distrust him regardless), he offers a thoughtful corrective to the mutual ideological hysteria surrounding the issue of guns in America.
