I was talking with a buddy of mine and he mentioned that his CSM allows soldiers come in his office and set down and talk about what is going on with them. i further ask my buddy,"I thought you were suppose to let your chain of command know if they want to speak with the CSM". "Not in my unit" my buddy commented. I thought I would share this interesting story with the community.

SR NCO issue | Army Study Guide

A non-commissioned officer is a military officer who has not earned a commission. Non-commissioned officers usually obtain their position of authority by promotion through the enlisted ranks. In contrast, commissioned officers usually enter directly from a military academy, Officer Candidate School, or Officer Training School after receiving a post-secondary degree. The NCO corps usually includes many grades of enlisted, corporal and sergeant; in some countries, warrant officers also carry out t
